description

The Cessato Allarme clothes—stand, created in 1986 by the De Pas, D'Urbino, Lomazzi studio, put into production by Poltrona in 1991, reveals its source of inspiration in its name ["Alarm Over!"]: the alarm—trumpets placed on light poles during the last war. Made of metal, available in bright colours, there is nothing warlike about it, indeed it has a cheerful pop touch, emphasised by the unusual name which, as Paolo Lomazzi suggests, in this beginning of winter 2020, is a metaphorical call to "go and blow the trumpets again".
