Inspired by the shapes of the ancient Roman baths, Moragas Gallissà designed this intimate armchair for his home with curved shapes, low armrests and a high, enveloping backrest. The architect accepted the premises of Rationalism while creating elements of comfort that reconcile form and use. Since Santa & Cole re-edited the Moragas in 1992, users all over the world have enjoyed the comfort of this armchair for reading and conversations. Moragas Features a matching footrest, and the upholstery is available in high-quality Gabriel fabric or the material of your choice.
